

Roundabouts:

Roundabouts can be added to any street of any classification when an engineering study shows that the proposed round-a-bout will operate at an acceptable level of service. Round-a-bouts shall be designed in accordance with Standard Engineering Practice and Guidelines provided by FHWA, AASHTO, ITE, or other applicable standards. The design shall be submitted to the Department of Public Works for review and approvals.